

Family life is not supposed to be like this

For support, comfort and help with family relationships that have been damaged by sadness, anger, hurtful actions or other behaviors that cause concern, give us a call.

Help lines are staffed by trained, understanding and caring listeners who are able to hear your issues and know how to assist you and your family.

Help is available

954-746-2055 (FISH Line)

A peer support group for families (A service through the Mental Health Association of Broward County)

954-578-5640 (SETH Line)

A peer support telephone line where you can talk to someone who listens, understands and cares (A service through the Mental Health Association of Broward County)

954-396-4636 (INFO Line)

To find help for your child (A service of 211 First Call for Help)

This public document was promulgated at a cost of $925.00, or $0.004 per copy, to inform the public about available One Community Partnership programs.

www.broward.org/onecommunity

HELP IS AVAILABLE

954-746-2055 (FISH Line)

A peer support group for families (A service through the Mental Health Association of Broward County)

954-578-5640 (SETH Line)

A peer support telephone line where you can talk to someone who listens, understands and cares (A service through the Mental Health Association of Broward County)

954-396-4636 (INFO Line)

To find help for your child (A service of 211 First Call for Help)